

Investigator or Senior Investigator Enforcement Division

Centrally located in downtown Vancouver, the British Columbia Securities Commission (BCSC) strives to make the investment markets benefit the public – enabling people to achieve their financial goals, enterprises to grow, and British Columbia to thrive. Through smart rules, diligent oversight, strong enforcement and reliable guidance, we act as guardians of the province’s investment marketplace, striving to make BC a place where people can invest with confidence and companies can flourish. We are an independent agency accountable to the provincial legislature and the public through the Minister of Finance.

Job Overview

Are you looking for a new challenge in a position where you can make a real difference? In this role, you’ll be investigating fraud, insider trading, and other potential breaches of the securities legislation. You’ll track down money, assets, and people. You will also use your analytical skills to piece together complex evidence, to be used in Commission hearings. In addition, you’ll be appointed as a Special Provincial Constable and work with law enforcement agencies and other regulators, including at an international level.

Qualifications

The successful candidate has:

- A degree in Finance, Accounting or Law and at least three years of experience conducting investigations or working in the securities industry, or a combination of these qualifications to effectively perform the tasks required
- Knowledge of administrative enforcement processes and securities market operations
- The ability to apply investigative techniques to conduct key interviews and analyze financial documents
- Effective communication skills in both collegial and adversarial situations
- Sound judgement and excellent interpersonal skills
- A highly analytical personality with natural skepticism
- Proficiency in MS Office, particularly Excel.

Other assets include:

- Knowledge of securities legislation
- Completion of the Canadian Securities Course
- Experience handling evidence
- Familiarity with investigative interviews.

Salary is commensurate with experience.
